

The Lincoln Lynx

What does the lynx look like?

The lynx is about two feet tall. A lynx has black spots, long ear tufts, a short tail, big feet, and thick fur.

What does the lynx eat?

The lynx likes to eat birds, hares, fish, deer, and other rodents.

Where does the lynx live?

The lynx lives in Canada, Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Alaska. The lynx lives on the following continents: Europe, Asia, and North America.

Did you know that the lynx is related to the bobcat, caracal, and the Siberian lynx?

Other Interesting Facts:

- *The lynx is nocturnal.
- *There are seven different kinds of lynx.
- *It lives 10 – 15 years.
- *The lynx is a shy animal.
- *All of the lynx are wild.
- *His feet are like snowshoes.
- *The baby lynx opens its eyes in 7 to 10 days.

By:
Cory K.,
Dominic N.,
Gabi M., Margo
G., Nelson F.,
and Jason P.