Dear Plainfield Consolidated Community School District 202 Families and Community Members:
The Director for English Language Learners, Ms. Linda Hoste, is seeking to recruit members for the Bilingual Parent Advisory Committee (BPAC). This committee shall provide feedback and recommendations in the planning, operation, and evaluation of the TBE/TPI program.

The application deadline is Friday October 2, 2009. The BPAC will be comprised of no more than 15 representatives who reflect the diversity of the bilingual student population in the district. The members should be comprised of parents or legal guardians of students in the TBE/TPI program, counselors, TBE/TPI teachers, and community leaders. The committee will meet at least 4 times a year. Sub-committees or working teams may hold additional meetings as necessary. Interpreters will be provided if requested.

To be considered as a BPAC member, please contact Ms. Hoste by Friday, October 2, 2009.
Respectfully,

Linda Hoste
