

Plainfield East Bengal Bookworms

Orange House Elementary School students are invited to become a Bengal Bookworm!

Read your grade level goal, complete and turn in the Bengal Bookworm Reading Log to your child's classroom teacher by Friday, January 13 and you will receive:

- ✓ Bengal Bookworm T-shirt and certificate
- ✓ Free admission for you and your parents to a PEHS home basketball game
- ✓ VIP seating and recognition for your accomplishment before the start of the Varsity game

Reading Goals

K, 1st, 2nd Grades= 200 minutes

3rd, 4th, 5th Grades= 300 minutes

*Bengal Bookworm Nights: Friday, January 27 before the Girls Varsity game OR Friday, February 3 before the Boys Varsity game. Students and their families should report to the PEHS student cafeteria between 5:45-6:15pm the night of the chosen game. Keep this top portion for your reference. *NO late forms will be accepted.

~~~~~

Bengal Bookworm Reading Log

Name: _____ Grade Level: _____

School: _____ Teacher: _____

Circle T-shirt size (Youth): S M L (Adult): S M L

| Book Title | Minutes |
|------------|---------|
|            |         |
|            |         |
|            |         |
|            |         |
|            |         |
|            |         |
|            |         |
|            |         |

*Continued on reverse

| Book Title                                                                                              | Minutes |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
|                                                                                                         |         |
| TOTAL MINUTES READ  |         |

Parent Signature _____

Please check the game you plan to attend. Arrive at East between 5:45-6:15pm the night of your chosen game.

_____Friday, January 27, 2012- PEHS Girls Basketball vs. Oswego

_____Friday, February 3, 2012- PEHS Boys Basketball vs. Minooka